

Restaurateurs Sans Frontières.

The James H.W. Thompson Foundation, 6 Soi Kasem San 2, Rama 1 Road -10330 Bangkok - Thailand.

<https://www.rsf-artclinic.com>

instagram

Employment proposal

Restaurateurs Sans Frontières is looking for an experienced Conservator of painting. Created in 1981 in Avignon, France, by Mr. Robert Bougrain Dubourg, RSF began working in Thailand in 1998, through the restoration project to conserve and restore Buddhist temples in collaboration with the Fine Arts Department.

The restoration was part of a wider project to restore 5 different cultural sites around the world as part of the French Year 2000 Celebrations (Cuba, Mount Athos Greece, Cairo Egypt, Valletta France and Thailand).

In 2003, when King Maha Vajiralongkorn Bodindradebayavarangkun was officially crowned as the 10th king of the Chakri dynasty, we began the several palace's decoration project by his intention, most recently Vimanmek Royal Teak Mansion.

The workshop studio is located on the premises of the Jim Thompson Art Center, the clientele has grown considerably thanks to Thai collectors and many foreign collectors based in Bangkok, Taiwan, Hong Kong, Singapore, the United States and many other countries. The main activities include textile, paper, wood objects, sculptures and historical- as well as contemporary- paintings restoration.

The company employs mainly Thai conservator to ensure the workflow. The company is looking for a conservator that will be in charge of proposal, restoration treatment, supervision and research in collaboration with the laboratory department.

Your responsibilities will include:

- Technical expertise
- Documentation of piece of art (condition report)
- Development of treatment concepts and proposals
- Leadership, instruction and supervision of the restoration process
- Participation in the development, investigation, and evaluation of new conservation and restoration techniques

Your qualifications:

- Completed studies in the conservation and restoration of painting including an academic degree
- Experience in the conservation and restoration field
- Communication skills in French and English
- Ability to work in a team
- Professional leadership
- Planning and organizational skills
- Openness to and interest in continuing education
- A responsible communication with clients

We offer:

- Space to contribute and implement ideas
- A wide range of opportunities, collaboration with private clients, galleries and museums
- Various object and rich artwork
- A well-equipped work environment
- Working time 9:00-17:30 with one hour lunch
- A nice supporting Thai team
- Numerous employee benefits

Follow us on instagram (@rsfartconservation)

Application process

Apply by email with your Curriculum Vitae and motivation letter to Gift
Napassorn Vanichaikun (Director)

gift@rsf.art

WhatsApp +66 61 554 4929

Restaurateurs Sans Frontières (RSF Asie)
RBD co.,ltd.

Jim Thompson House
6 Soi Kasem San 2, Rama 1 Rd.
10330 Bangkok Thailand

Follow us on instagram (@rsfartconservation)